

7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution the Constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties

INDIAN CONSTITUTION AND HUMAN RIGHTS

(Compulsory Paper for all U.G. Courses)

Chapter 1: Indian Constitutional philosophy

- a) Features of the constitution; preamble
- b) Fundamental Rights and Fundamental Duties
- c) Directive Principles of State Policy

Chapter 2: Union and state Executive, Legislature and judiciary

- a) Union parliament and state Legislature: Powers and functions
- b) President, prime minister and council of ministers
- c) State Governor, Chief minister and council of ministers
- d) The Supreme Court and High Court; Powers and Functions

Chapter 3: Concept and Development of Human Rights

- a) Meaning Scope and Development of Human Rights.
- b) First, second and Third Generation Human Rights
- c) U.N. and Human Rights – UNHRC
- d) Other Covenants- UDHR 1948, ICCPR 1996 and ICESCR 1966

Chapter 4: Human Rights in India

- a) Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993 (NHRC and SHRC)
- b) Judicial Activism and Human Rights
- c) Women Rights and Green Rights